1. Getting Started

1.1 Software Version

Select the About icon to view information about the HRL.

1.2 Solution Requirements

In order to access and view the HUD Resource Locator (HRL) requires a PC or mobile device with a supported browser and Internet access.

1.3 Access Information

HRL is a public facing application. There are no user classes, profiles, or access restrictions such that all users have the same functional permissions.

1.4 Logging On

Go to the HUD Resource Locator site at:

HUD Resource Locator

1.5 Solution Menu

1.5.1 HUD Resource Locator (HRL)

The following options are available via the introduction page (application wizard):

- Find Affordable Housing Opportunities Near Me – Affordable housing opportunities for low income, elderly, special needs, rent-restricted, tax credit, or rural locations.
- Find a HUD Office Near Me – Find My local HUD office.
- Find My Local Public Housing Agency (PHA) – Find the nearest PHA to my location.
- Find Homeless Resources Near Me – Find homeless resources near me.
- Find Affordable Elderly and Special Needs Housing – Opportunities for elderly and special needs residents to live as independently as possible, but who may need some assistance with daily activities.
- View all Resources – Search for HUD resources and HUD housing opportunities by keyword(s).

1.6 Changing User ID and Password

N/A

1.7 Exit Solution

You can log out of the application at any time by simply closing the web-browser. After you exit the application, you can log into the application by opening a web-browser and the HRL URL.

2. Using the Solution (Online)

HOW TO USE THIS GUIDE

The HRL User Guide lays out basic descriptions of functions within the tool. While the guide does not detail all the possible outcomes of the various functions, it provides an introduction to each function and some basic guidelines to help you troubleshoot unexpected results. The user guide is laid out to follow the order of HRL's functional tabs as they appear on the landing page. However, users who already know the topics where they need assistance can see the table of contents to find the appropriate section of the guide.

ACCESSING HRL

There is only one path to reach the HRL mapping and reporting tool:

HRL

The first time you successfully access HRL, you will see a checkbox asking you if you want to always see the wizard on the startup. By selecting the checkbox, you will no longer see the wizard upon startup.

Additionally, you will notice there is a disclaimer button on the bottom right of the application wizard window. By selecting this you can find out information about what the application is and is not responsible for.

2.1 Application Wizard

This U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) Resource Directory was automatically compiled by the HUD Resource Locator to assist low-moderate income families locate decent, safe and affordable rental housing and other associated resources. Included is information about apartments for "Elderly and Special Needs Persons"; Privately Owned HUD "Subsidized Housing"; Low Income Housing Tax Credit Apartments; HUD's Public Housing Program; Continuum of Care Homeless Points of Contact; and USDA Rural Housing. HUD may subsidize some apartment complexes listed within this document. Monthly rent for some subsidized apartments may be lower than conventional market rates. Please note that HUD provides funding for the various housing complexes and entities listed in this directory. However, HUD does not administer these programs directly. Therefore, persons seeking housing or services through one of these entities, apartment complexes or organizations listed here must apply directly to the housing complex or entity listed.

Disclaimer:

The HUD Resource Locator does not provide eligibility and waiting list information, unit availability, tenant selection preferences, or types of accessible features for these properties and resources. Therefore, please contact the Property Manager/Management Agent for additional information.

This information provides a general guide to locating HUD and USDA resources. Users of this data are cautioned that many of these resources have lengthy waiting lists and that units may not be actually available at this time. In addition, individuals with disabilities who need accessible features must make individual inquiries of owners/property managers to determine if the features of the units referred to in the inventory as "accessible" will actually meet their individual needs. Users of this website or smartphone application should report any contact information errors that they encounter while using the HUD Resource Locator to their respective field or regional HUD field office. HUD does not require that property managers list contact information in certain programs. If there is no contact information listed, you may visit the site directly to inquire about vacancies as well as how to apply.
